Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 9-12, 14, and 17-20 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention generally discloses an information sorting decision aid which aids a decision maker through the second stage of decision-making of choosing from a large variety of similar products through the use of a graphical preference mechanism together with locally executed recommendation and display logic. However, the prior arts of record fail to teach, singly or in combination, recommendation logic responsive to user input of plural selection criteria to apply a matching algorithm to calculate, for each one of a plurality of respective products/services for which data is stored in said memory, a respective score for ranking each respective product/service according to the matching of the data defining the criteria defining the respective product/service and the input user plural selection criteria and to select a predetermined number of graphical representations for inclusion in said second display portion of said user interface display wherein said selected graphical representations comprise graphical representations of products/services associated with scores corresponding to the leading ranked matches between said input plural selection criteria and the data defining the criteria defining said respective products/services, the graphical representations displayed in said second display portion being selectable by a user, said user interface display being responsive to user selection of a graphical representation of a product/service from said second display portion to generate a user interface display providing further information on said selected product/service utilizing data stored in said memory.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
